Unit 3
The focus of this unit is the development of critical responses to both literary and non-literary texts, including media texts, and the effective use of oral language.

Areas of Study:
1. Reading and the Study of Texts
This includes a study of a range of texts, including literary texts and current Australian media texts.
2. The Craft of Writing
This study focuses on the achievement of competence and confidence in writing for different purposes and audiences and in a variety of forms.
3. Effective Oral Communication
This focuses on the use of, and response to, oral language in different contexts.

Texts:
Across the unit 3 and 4 sequence, students must read and study four selected texts from the annually published V.C.E. list. One text may be non-print (film) and the other three are selected from novels, short stories, poetry, plays, biographies and autobiographies. See teacher for list of titles.

Outcomes and Assessment:
Outcomes are based on areas of study and may be scored.
